1. Introduction

As a part of the Human Values and Professional Ethics (CLL120) course, each student was required to complete 30 hours of community service. The objective of this project was to contribute positively to society through participation in socially beneficial activities while developing values such as mindfulness, empathy, and responsibility.

This report provides an overview of the community service activities I undertook in collaboration with various community organizations and NGOs, focusing on environmental sustainability, animal welfare, spiritual service, and care for the elderly.

2. Objectives of the Project

- To engage in meaningful community-based service that promotes mindfulness and compassion.
- To develop a sense of responsibility and empathy towards society and the environment.
- To contribute to the well-being of animals, senior citizens, and local communities.
- To foster leadership, teamwork, and communication skills through active participation.
- To understand the importance of service as a foundation of human values and ethics.
